Furthermore, domestic students may also take an approved Leave of Absence (LOA) once they have commenced their course of study however only a maximum of 12 months can be granted without requesting further approval from the Head of Course.

You can apply for a deferment or LOA here.

International students are not permitted to defer their initial offer or take a Leave of Absence unless otherwise discussed with their Home Campus.

Credit Transfer

If you have undertaken study in the last ten years, or have relevant in-formal or non-formal learning, you may be eligible for credit towards your course. Please note that some courses have reduced timeframes within which prior study remains eligible for credit. Please refer to the CQUni Handbook for specific credit time limits relating to your course.

To submit an application for credit, please refer to the Credit Calculator or contact the Academic Pathways Team via their email credit@cqu.edu.au. Further information about the credit process can also be found on the Credit for Prior Learning webpage.

Credit applications should be submitted at least four (4) weeks before the relevant term commences. Applications must be complete with all supporting documentation to be assessed by CQUniversity. CQUniversity cannot obtain documents from other institutions, organisations or individuals.

Limits on Units

Students cannot complete more than 12 Level One units in this course. Furthermore, students cannot complete units outside of your course structure that will cause you to exceed the 24 units required by your course.

- Level One units begin with an "11" code (i.e. MRKT11029)

CQU Global Outbound Program

CQU Global Outbound programs allow current CQUniversity students to experience life and study from a choice of over 30 countries across six continents. This program allows students to receive 24 credit points (equivalent to four units of 6 credit points).

To be eligible for a place in the Outbound Exchange program for a term (semester) or academic year, you must meet the following requirements:

1. Be a current student at any CQUniversity Australia campus.
 - a. Those enrolled by Online Studies must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident.
2. Have completed at least one term (six months) of study at CQUniversity before embarking on an exchange. You are not required to maintain certain grade to part in the program.
3. Meet any entry requirements stipulated by our partner institutions including pre-requisites for chosen courses.

International students are responsible for meeting all Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) student visa requirements and overseas institutions visa requirements. CQUniversity will not be responsible for matters related to visa applications. Some partner institutions may not accept an international student for an exchange program.

It is possible for students to go out on exchange more than once, but you may be restricted by your course of study and in some cases, external accreditation of your course. If you are able to go out on exchange more than once you must find a new host institution each time due to partner restrictions.

Note for International Students

If you are an international student studying at CQUniversity Australia on a student visa, there may be some restrictions on where you can go. The standard international student visa regulations would not allow you to remain in Australia and undertake a virtual exchange and we do not encourage students to return to their country of origin on our exchange program. Some of our partner institutions will also have restrictions, but there will be opportunities available to you. Please contact our CQU Global adviser by emailing cquglobal-out@cqu.edu.au or calling 07 4923 2438.
